

Workshop Program

Monday 19th August 2002, Sydney Convention Centre
9.30am – 1.00pm

LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT FOR CLINICIANS

Increasingly, team leaders, unit managers, psychiatrists and other clinicians in Mental Health require leadership and management skills to meet the demands of their roles. Traditionally, professional training in medicine, nursing and allied health has neglected these areas. This workshop will give clinicians an introduction, which will be of immediate help in managing teams and assist clinicians to consider their own future needs. Target Audience: Clinicians – particularly trainee psychiatrists.
