

WORKSHOP PROGRAM

PRIMARY CARE, YOUTH AND FAMILY MENTAL HEALTH
Setting the Scene: the national frameworks
9.00	Welcome &amp; Overview of the Day Leanne Wells, Acting Deputy CEO, ADGP and Phil Robinson, Chair, AICAFMHA to jointly chair the day
9.10	Opening address Lena Sanci, University of Melbourne
9.40	The national policy picture Colleen Krestensen, Director Partnerships and Service Reform Section, Department of Health &amp; Ageing
9.50	Partners in prevention – Mental Health & General Practice Anne O'Hanlon, Auseinet
10.00	Comorbidity and young people Grace Groom, MHCA
10.10	General practice, mental health services and youth perspectives The youth and family perspective
10.25	ADGP, the general practice perspective Rob Trigger, NSW
10.40	AICAFMHA, the specialist provider perspective Erica Lee, Queensland
11 am Morning Tea
Translating policy into practice: the programs and systems levels
(20 minute presentations 10 minutes for Qs and for noting key issues and strategies that can be fed into communiqué)	Working with children and young people with mental health problems: the dilemmas and opportunities at the program and systems levels
11.30	Case study – GPs and children: small group learning module– Northern Division, Melbourne (Bernadette Hess)

12.00	Case study – Women and Children’s Hospital and Adelaide Northern Division of General Practice ( Phil Robinson and Barbara Magin )
12.30	Case study - Every Family, Queensland ( Kerry Bidwell and Sarah Dwyer )
1 pm Lunch
Consultation
2.00	Leanne and Phil to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide a summary of the key points from the case studies as they relate to the draft communiqué – i.e. what is good practice? How do we embed?</li> <li>• Outline the aims of workgroups and determine if the participants would like any additional key areas for consideration in the communiqué.</li> </ul>
2.30	Small groups to work on issues raised in communiqué, Structure of workgroups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Workgroups will be formed to address each of the 4 key areas outlined in the communiqué plus any others raised by participants;</li> <li>• Each group will be facilitated by an appointed facilitator (from the planning group);</li> <li>• At least two of the earlier presenters will be appointed to each group to provide advice and to communicate the outcomes in the subsequent panel session. They will be appointed to the most appropriate group according to there area of expertise and interest.</li> </ul>
3.30 Afternoon Tea
Looking to the future: embedding good practice and determining future directions to 2008
4.00	Panel and feedback from small groups Panel members – presenters from the morning’s session Commentary by the panel with audience participation to feed into a workshop communiqué
4.45	Summary by Leanne and Phil - setting key directions to 2008
Close 5 pm	