ABOUT TheMHS CONFERENCE

TheMHS Conference returns to Brisbane for the first time since 1996 to celebrate its 29th annual conference. TheMHS Conference brings together people from across Australia and New Zealand to stimulate debates that challenge present knowledge and ideas about mental health care and mental health systems.

TheMHS Conference is multidisciplinary and features presentations from NGO, public and private sectors of the mental health community.

TheMHS Conference promotes collaborative research, practice, policy-making and education.

BUILDING HEALTHY COMMUNITIES: STORIES OF RESILIENCE AND HOPE

Attend TheMHS Conference 2019 to discuss and debate the challenge of building healthy communities that support people to withstand, adapt and cope with mental health adversity?

TheMHS Conference will consider what healthy communities look like in 2019 and deliberate on the role of health professionals and mental health organisations in achieving healthy communities.

The conference will explore the important role of resilience in building healthy communities across all facets of the sector from the consumer experience to Non-Government Organisations, General Practitioners and public mental health services.

We will question how to foster personal resilience to allow people to enjoy a healthy life in the community during recovery.

Keynote speakers will share their own stories of resilience and hope with a drive to building healthier communities.

TheMHS Conference 2019 brings people from across Australia and New Zealand to stimulate debates that challenge the boundaries of present knowledge and ideas about mental health care and mental health systems.
