NOTE: Please contact us if your piece exceeds 60 minutes for guidance on your entry.

Judging Information

Entries are assessed against the following criteria:

1. Evidence that the story has been well researched and is factually accurate.
 2. The content of the story is sufficiently complete and balanced to impart a broad understanding of the issues.
 3. The overall style and journalistic character of the entry are engaging for the target audience.
 4. Guidelines and Checklists for reporting of mental health matters are taken into account:
 - Australia – Mindframe guidelines
 - New Zealand – Mental Health Foundation guidelines
- Judges will consider the realistic limitations within which journalists work, and the variability on impact and reach of diverse media outlets.
 - Judges will take into consideration any material that supports the positive effect of the publication or broadcast, e.g., letters to editor, community response in the form of letters, emails, phone calls, talkback radio, etc.
 - A panel including media practitioners, clinicians, consumers, and carers will judge the Media Awards. To assist the panel, an external journalist may be invited to review any shortlist.

Disclaimer

- Judges reserve the right to refuse an entry if they feel that it does not meet the selection criteria as listed under “Entry Guidelines” > “Part B”.
- Judges reserve the right to withdraw a TheMHS Award at any time, including after the Award is granted, if they find that the entrant does not comply with the entry conditions.
